My Food Related Story/Recipe (please use additional pages)

On the eight of June 1959 my grandad John Bryan married my nanna Eileen Buske. They got married in Milltown church, the priest was Fr. Malachy Conroy. They got married at 10 o'clock in the morning. There were twenty five guests. They went back to my nanna's house in Caerphilly. The wedding reception began with a wedding breakfast which consisted of fried bacon, black pudding, brown bread and butter which were all produced and homemade by nanna's family. Throughout the day sweet cakes, buns, tea, bread and trifles were served. These were also homemade. Their wedding cake was made by a neighbour and was two tiers. The drinks they had were tea, bottled beer, red lemonade and whisky. The water was drawn from a pump. They danced to music in the kitchen. They were very happy and grandad said it was a fantastic day.
