

I have Louis Kevin O'Boherly, a Grandson of the late
Dr. Kevin God O'Boherly (Lord have mercy on him) and of "Eva" of "The Nation"
(who is not at all well at present) for an office companion.

I suppose Cousin Maggie is getting on remarkably well with both the music and her studies, but of course she will not have very much time to practice whilst studying for the exam.

I am getting on fairly well, still going to the Technical College. One is not taught anything in the office, only what can be learnt by looking at the others working and by being inquisitive. Therefore it is slow work learning the construction of buildings, which was not a subject for the examination.

May has commenced work in the Millinery Department of Chapman & Co's., the firm that Thomas Martyn works for. She is now able to make her own hats from start to finish, also her dresses, for she has taken lessons from a teacher of dressmaking.

Enclosed you will find a money order for ten (£10) pounds, payable to Uncle Michael. Of this sum three (3) pounds are for Grandmother from me.

Father, Mother and May join me in wishing you all a very Merry Christmas and a Bright and Happy New Year and many of them.

I remain

Dear Grandmother, Uncle, Aunts & Cousins
Your fondest Grandson, Nephew & Cousin
John M. Hugh

With fondest love
from all to all
