

I see In the Paper that the potato crop failed this year I would like to know How ye are all getting on Tom Godwin & sister Honour & children. I hope they are well also old Tom. Strife & Coole people also old Mullany which of the winter nights I was with him I expect Mr. Bourke is married I keep dreaming of him often. I hope to be excused for not mentioning names of all Friends as they are too numerous to mention I feel ashamed of Aunt Winie to fall drunk In the house when I left Home I hope she is well. I expect the day will Come when I will get drunk agin In Milltown let me know if Mother & Father has Rheumatism yet Also the Caltra people

As I have not much time writing this letter I Beg to be excused for my errors

I am sending my fond love & Best wishes to ye all friends & neighbours By By for a while From your fond & affectionate son J. McHugh

To John McHugh

Please write as soon ^{as you} get this
I are well
