

Ms. A. 1. 1. 1.

Dear Father
It is near In reply to letter which I gave me great pleasure to know that you are still enjoying good health as I am at present thank God. You will find Enclosed here the small amount of £3. of which you will give Ten shillings to Sister Honour as a token of my friendship for her. I hope you will receive this letter before Xmas As I know how Mother will feel if she don't hear from me. This is a very small present to send you for. But I being so busy I had no chance to go to the Bank am better of this time

ear. I am business & sent of anybody long before I surprise ye all again. I Intend to cross the Atlantic again sometime. I have not heard from John in a year. I must write to him soon. I am glad that Patt. is not forgetting home.
I thank you Brothers very much for the nice letter you wrote to me & the information I received. I have not much to say that would interest you. But I received a letter from Ireland and knowing the Country every little story brings Joy.

I was to all my & consanguine
& mother in tumbler of me in Xmas.

I wish you to enjoy a happy and a merry Xmas. for I suppose you ^{know} that I shall have a good time no matter where I am.

I will now conclude with fond love & best wishes to all. good bye. From your Affectionate Son.
