Roll No. 11918

County, Wexford

DUBLIN:

PRINTED BY ALEX. THOM & CO. (LIMITED), 87, 88, & 89, ABBEY-STREET,

THE QUEEN'S PRINTING OFFICE.

FOR HER MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE.

1894.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR KEEPING THE REGISTER.

(1.) The Register, which is intended to contain and to present at one view, a permanent record of the school history of every pupil on the Rolls, consists of two parts, viz. :—

I. The Alphabetical Index; and

II. The Register of Pupils.

(2.) Separate Registers are to be kept for pupils of each sex, and under no circumstances are the names of pupils of different sexes to appear on the same Register; consequently, in all schools attended by boys and girls, two Registers must be kept.

(3.) Every pupil on entering the school receives a Register Number, which he is to retain during his entire school course. In each Register these Numbers are to be consecutive, and are to be given to the pupils in the order of their admission. The pupil's name is never to be struck off the Register.

(4.) The Alphabetical Index.—In this Index the name and Register Number of the pupil are to be entered, in the proper columns, on his first admission to the School, and also the page in the Register on which his name first appears. Should it become necessary to remove his name to another page, the number of the latter is to be entered under the number originally recorded. The columns in the Index are lettered at top, one or more columns to each letter, according to the size of the volume; and a few columns are left blank at the end, on which any initial letter for which there is not space sufficient in the earlier columns can be continued. When this has to be done, the page of the Index on which the further entries will be found, should be entered at the foot of the original column.

(N.B.—The old "Register of Infants" is not to be used in future. All pupils are to be registered from the first in the ordinary Register of Classed Pupils.)

(5.) The Register of Pupils. Each page of the Register is intended to hold five names, and is divided into two parts—the upper part containing the previous history of the pupils; and the lower exhibiting their progress from year to year, as tested by the Results Examination.

(6.) The headings sufficiently indicate the entries to be made in each column.

The Name should always be written in full, surname first; and, in the case of two or more children of the same name appearing on the Rolls, the distinctive designation by which each is locally known should be added.

The exact date of pupil's birth should be entered on his or her first admission. Teachers should not take the statements of the children on the matter.

The Religious Denomination is to be ascertained from the parent (the Father, if alive) or guardian of the pupil, and is to be entered according to his wish: R.C., Roman Catholic; E.C. (late) Established Church; Pres., Presbyterian; Meth., Methodist, &c.

The Residence will be sufficiently indicated by the townland in rural districts, or by the name of the village, as the case may be; but in towns the name of the street should be given.

The last three columns at the top of each page are of great importance, and it will be the duty of the Teacher to ascertain the particulars by careful inquiry from the pupil's previous Teacher, and to enter them with strict accuracy.

(N.B.—It is the class in which pupil was last examined that is to be entered.)

(7.) The lower part of the page is divided into five compartments, corresponding to the five names in the upper part—the name of the pupil to whom the compartment refers being written on the vertical line to the left.

Each of the horizontal lines represents the year ending with the date entered in the second column, and the entries concerning all pupils for the year are to be made at the close of the Results year, except the Examination marks, which are to be copied from the Examination Roll immediately after its turn from the Education Office.

It is to be observed that the years should follow each other in regular order, in the second column headed "Year ending." Should a pupil leave the school for a year or two and then return, the blank lines in the spaces for the Examination marks will show at a glance the fact of his absence.

(8.) Although, as already stated, the pupil's name is never to be struck off the Register, it may be struck off the Rolls. In such case, the Teacher is to enter the date on which the name was struck off the Rolls; and if the pupil be re-admitted, the date of re-admission is to be entered.

(9.) Should a pupil remain at school so long as to fill up an entire compartment, his name should be transferred to a new page, the words "Transferred to page —," being written in the right-hand bottom corner of his old compartment; and in the right-hand columns at the top of his new page the words "Transferred from page —."

(10.) It will be the duty of the Teacher to keep the Register neatly and accurately, wholly free from blots and erasures, making the entries with the same care, and using none but the best ink. The book should be covered, and carefully preserved from being soiled or injured. In any case where from the negligence or carelessness of the Teacher, it may become necessary to issue a new Register to a school, its cost will have to be defrayed by the Teacher.

In opening a Register for the first time in a new School the Names should be written and the Register Number assigned, as nearly as possible, in the order in which the pupils are admitted.

When a new Register is required no names are to be transferred to it from the old Register, except in cases coming under (9), but Register Numbers commencing 1, 2, 3, &c., may be assigned to pupils now admitted for the first time.
