

Go Wild - Nature Camps!

Woodlawn, Galway
20th & 21st August

Discover the wonders of local wildlife in a fun and safe environment through field trips, surveys, and practical workshops led by local nature experts.

Learn how to find and recognise different birds and animals and get up close and personal with some of your wild neighbours, with games, challenges, quizzes and prizes... and loads more!

Where? Woodlawn National School, Woodlawn, Galway

When? 10:10 - 14:50, 20th & 21st August (links with train times)

Who? Children 7 - 10 years. Parents and other family members also welcome!

How? Go Wild Nature Camps are free! However, you must reserve tickets in advance by visiting <https://gowildnaturecampwoodlawn.eventbrite.ie>

Bring warm clothes, rain gear, wellies, a packed lunch and an inquisitive mind!

For further information contact: John Lusby, BirdWatch Ireland; Email: jlusby@birdwatchireland.ie
Ph: 085 7201892 or Marie Mannion, Heritage Office, Galway County Council;
Email: mmannion@galwaycoco.ie; Ph: 091 509198, or visit <https://gowildnaturecampwoodlawn.eventbrite.ie>

Go Wild Nature Camps are funded by Galway County Council and the Heritage Council and are a Heritage Week 2018 event, coordinated by BirdWatch Ireland and Galway County Council.